The Bob and Tom Show

Craig Allen delights in "turning the mundane into the insane. It's been said that "his twisted logic would make a Vulcan cry with laughter".

A highly-respected comedic writer, Craig has quickly become a staple of morning radio shows. Craig can be heard regularly on XM Satellite Radio. He recently made his live national radio debut on "The Bob and Tom Show" (heard by several million people daily). Originally slated for a short 15-minute segment, Bob and Tom liked Craig so much that they kept him on for nearly two hours!

Craig's television work includes writing for the critically-acclaimed, Peabody Award-nominated PBS television series "Mental Engineering". He was also a featured performer on NBC's "Night Shift with Kevin Ferguson".

Craig Allen is quickly establishing himself as one of the nation's top stand-up comedians. Don't miss this chance to see him perform live!

~ Applauze Magazine

"Craig is in the top five comics I consider to be good writers. The other four are already stars."
