Published April 19, 2003

Nearly 50 stand-up comedians will do their acts across the nation Monday on behalf of troops in Iraq.

Proceeds from the Stand Up for the Troops benefit performances, organized by Minneapolis comic Craig Allen, will be donated to the USO and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Locally, participating clubs are the Comedy Gallery, Radisson Hotel and Conference Center in Plymouth, the Comedy Gallery South in Bloomington and the Minnesota Comedy Club in Maplewood.
