

Scott Long headlines at Westward Ho

Comedian Scott Long will headline four nights of performances in the Westward Ho next week.

The shows will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and at 7 p.m. (smoke-free) and 9:30 p.m. Saturday.

Over his career, Long appeared on the spoken word stage of the 1994 Lollapalooza concert, was a featured interview in 1999 on ESPN.com, performed at Pendleton Federal Penitentiary and will be appearing on the upcoming "Bob and Tom Show." His unpredictable shows often contain topical humor as well as wild sound effects.

Long is the brother of the Ho's current comedy emcee Matt Long.

Opening for Scott Long will be Craig Allen, a past performer at the Ho. Allen is touring in support of his current CD — "Idiot Box" — a parody of classic television shows. He's also written for television shows such as "Smart Alex" and the PBS series "Mental Engineering."

Chris Lindgren, manager of the Ho, said Allen was last in Grand Forks for the 1997 flood. The comedian spent time stacking sandbags around the entertainment complex.

— @ staff report

◀ Comedian Scott Long will perform shows at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and at 7 p.m. (smoke-free) and 9:30 p.m. Saturday in the Westward Ho's Comedy Gallery.

top singles

Radio & Records' "National Airplay Overview" charts for week ending May 11: (reprinted with permission, KRT)

ROCK

1

"It's Been Awhile"

Staind

2

"Duck And Run"